

“Joy of All Who Sorrow”

No. 140 November, 2020

I am a Christian.

He who answers thus has declared everything at once – his country, profession, family; the believer belongs to no city on earth but to the heavenly Jerusalem'

St John Chrysostom

Notes & Jottings

CROSS

The original wooden cross on the main cupola suffered from the elements and broke. Tim Le Vin has very kindly made a replacement cross in stainless steel which will be installed on 11 November, weather permitting. After all the delays caused by the plague and other things, we hope that the weather will not hinder the work although this month can be difficult in that respect.

NEW STOCK ITEMS

The 2021 St Herman Calendars have arrived. The theme this time is the Holy Seventy Apostles. The calendar, which is a lectionary in book format, retails at £9.50 per copy. This year we published a new ikon card. The subject is the original Moscow Ikon of the Mother of God "Joy of all Who Sorrow" and is the reproduction of a photograph given to us by Nicholas Meade. These folded cards are blank inside making them suitable for any occasion, including Christmas. They retail at 20p each, with envelopes. All proceeds will go towards the establishment of the Common Room. Volume 8, Elder Anatole the Younger, of the Optina Series has been published. SGOIS has copies in stock. They retail at £11 per copy. Also, we've restocked with copies of the various booklets published by St Paisius Monastery. The current price of these is £3.50 per copy. The subjects include:

Akathist to the Mother of God, Nurturer of Children.	Akathist to the Mother of God, the Milkgiver
